

EVACUATE!

EVACUATE!

- verse 1 (Part 1) Friday night, city in a blackout.
Windows are dark and the lights are low.
Sirens wail, we go running for the shelter, (Part 2) (imitate siren sound)
Huddling scared 'til the all-clear goes.
- (Part 1) The Germans sent their aeroplanes to bomb the house next door.
It isn't safe for children in the cities anymore. (Part 2) So get a shuffle on!
- chorus (All) Evacuate! Evacuate!
The train is in the station, we can't be late.
So grab your gas masks, don't hesitate:
It's time to evacuate!
- verse 2 (Part 1) Saturday, standing on the platform. (Part 2) Ba ba, ba doo be doo (x2)
Me and my friends leave the blitz behind. Ba ba, ba doo be doo (x2)
On the train, chattin' on the choo choo, Ba ba, ba doo be doo (x2)
Where shall we live? What will we find? Ba ba, ba doo be doo wah.
- (Part 1) I didn't want to leave my home, I guess I had to go,
But how I'll miss my mother and the way of life I know. (Part 2) So hear the whistle blow!
- chorus (All) Evacuate! Evacuate!... etc
- bridge (Improvise a scat solo)
- verse 3 (Part 1) Weeks go by, now I have a new life. (Part 2) Ba ba, ba doo be doo (x2)
Strangers I've met: host family. Ba ba, ba doo be doo (x2)
Cleaner air, but the cows are kinda smelly. Eew!
Wish that my mom came to visit me. Ba ba, ba doo be doo wah.
- (Part 1) How I've got those homesick blues, I really cannot wait
For the day the war will end. My home train will be great. (Part 2) Just get me outta here!
- chorus (All) Evacuate! Evacuate!... etc
It's time to evacuate!
